the compensation arrangement is allowed to take part in the compensation determination process. In determining the appropriate level of compensation for the Executive Director, the Executive Committee examines market data from LaborIQ, an accurate compensation tool that pulls from a large data pool and provides information specific to non-profit environments. This information from LaborIQ is validated against the prior year's United Way Wage and Benefit report and the non-profit trends report from PNP staffing.

The analysis performed by Achilles, the Society's HR consultant, includes utilizing knowledge of current market conditions, current job scope, and the salary market reviews from LaborIQ to make recommendations for grade changes and potential increases.

A similar process is followed for determining compensation of other officers and key employees. The Executive Director reviews the information and makes merit increase recommendations based on position within internal salary grade, contribution over this past year and overall score on the annual evaluation.
